

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. DICTIONARY of Archaic and Provincial Words, Obsolete Phrases, Proverbs, and Ancient Customs from the reign of Edward I. by JAMES ORCHARD HALLIWELL, F.R.S., F.S.A., &c. 2 vols. 8vo. CONTAINING UPWARDS OF 1000 PAGES, CLOSELY PRINTED IN DOUBLE COLUMNS, cloth, £2. 2s

This work, which has occupied the Editor some years, is now completed; it contains above 50,000 words, (embodying all the known scattered glossaries of the English language) forming a complete key for the reader of the works of our old Poets, Dramatists, Theologians, and other authors whose works abound with allusions, of which explanations are not to be found in ordinary Dictionaries and books of reference. Most of the principal Archaisms are illustrated by examples selected from early inedited MSS. and rare books, and by far the greater portion will be found to be original authorities.

This almanac is written in the Barnsley Dialect, and therefore fits itself with peculiar emphasis to the understanding of all in that particular locality. Its influence, however, extends beyond this, for even those unacquainted with the Barnsley peculiarities of speech, will find much amusement in perusing the witticisms of the author, through his curious mode of expression.

- 325 BAKER'S (Geo.) New Iewell of Health, wherein is contayned the most excellent Secrets of Phisicke and Philosophie, as also treating very amplye of all Dystillations of Waters, Oils, &c. 4to. Black letter, woodcuts, neat, 7s 6d 1576

- "The neighbourhood of Banbury is equally rich in British, Roman, Saxon, Norman and English Antiquities, of all which Mr. Beesley has given regularly cleared accounts. Banbury holds an important place in the history of the Parliamentary War of the 17th century, and was the scene of the great Battle of Edgill, and of the important fight of Cropsedy Bridge. Relating to the events of that period, the author has collected a great body of local information of the most interesting kind. By no means the least valuable part of Mr. Beesley's work in his account of the numerous interesting early churches, which characterise the Banbury district."—The Archaeologist.

- "L'ouvrage que nous publions ici pour la première fois est assez important pour que l'on soit en droit de s'étonner qu'il n'ait pas été imprimé depuis long-temps. Il retrace les faits et gestes d'un puissant baron, dont la vie turbulente se passa dans une lutte presque continuelle contre son souverain légitime. Comme cet état de révolte fut, plus on moins celui de la plupart des grands vassaux anglais sous le règne orageux de Jean-Sans-Terre, on doit accueillir avec le plus vif intérêt un ouvrage écrit sous l'influence des traditions populaires de l'époque, que négligent assez ordinairement les chroniques monastiques et qui devient ainsi la formule d'après laquelle l'on peut reconstituer par la pensée l'existence d'un baron anglo-normand au treizième siècle."—INTRODUCTION.

- 1960 FOX (Charles, of Bristol), a Series of 178 clever and characteristic Drawings, made during an Excursion to Norway, Denmark, and Russia, in 1787, in 2 vols. 4to. in morocco, £4. 4s
These sketches were made by the late Charles Fox, Esq. of Bristol, one of the first Persian scholars of the day. His health having failed him, for its restoration he took a voyage to Denmark, Norway, and Russia, and intending to publish on his return an account of his Travels, he drew these sketches as intended illustrations of the work, which in consequence of ill health and subsequent speedy death, he never accomplished. On his decease his widow gave them with other MSS. to my father (Dr. Adam Clarke), from whom they descended to me, J. B. B. CLARKE.—Note inside.

 "The interest which the curious Poem of which this publication is chiefly composed has excited, is proved by the fact of its having been translated into German, and of it having reached a second edition, which is not common with such publications. Mr. Halliwell has carefully revised the new edition, and increased its utility by the addition of a complete and correct glossary."—Literary Gazette.
- 2428 HALLIWELL'S Account of the European Manuscripts in the Chetham Library, at Manchester, 12mo. 1s 1842
- 2429 HALLIWELL'S Torrent of Portugal, an English Metrical Romance, now first published, from an unique MS. of the XVth Century, preserved in the Chetham Library at Manchester, post 8vo. cloth, uniform with Ritson, Weber, and Ellis's publications, 5s 1842
 "A literary curiosity, and one both welcome and serviceable to the lover of black-letter lore. Though the obsolescence of the style may occasion sad stumbling to a modern reader, yet the class to which it rightly belongs, will value it accordingly; both because it is curious in its details, and possesses philological importance. To the general reader it presents one feature of interest, viz. the reference to Wayland Smith, whom Sir W. Scott has invested with so much interest."—Metropolitan Magazine.
- 2430 HALLIWELL'S NUGÆ POETICÆ; Select Pieces of Old English Popular Poetry, illustrating the Manners and Arts of the XVth Century, 12mo only 100 copies printed, cloth, 5s 1844

- 2432 HALLIWELL'S Dictionary of the Archaic and Provincial Words, Obsolete Phrases, Proverbs, and Ancient Customs from the 14th Century, forming a Key to the Writings of our Ancient Poets, Dramatists, and other Authors, whose works abound with allusions, of which explanations are not to be found in the ordinary books of reference, 2 vols. 8vo. containing upwards of 1000 pages, closely printed in double columns, £2. 2s 1847
- "It forms a most comprehensive glossary to all our English writers, from the beginning of the fourteenth century to the time of the Stuarts, including the earlier chroniclers, the writings of Wycliffe, and a long range of Poets, from Piers Ploughman, Chaucer, Gower, Lydgate, &c. to Spenser and his contemporaries, with Shakespeare and the dramatists of that age. Most of the words of the Dictionary are illustrated by examples, selected not only from printed authorities, but from the numerous early English MSS. scattered through public and private libraries, and these are extremely numerous and valuable. In addition to the obsolete portion of our language, this work may be said to be a complete dictionary of the local dialects of the present day, and is one which will be an acceptable addition to every library."—Morning Herald.

- * * This is one of the very rarest, most curious, and intrinsically valuable of all the drolleries, if only for the very interesting poem in which characters are given of the following poets: namely, Shakspeare, Jonson, Beaumont, Fletcher, Massinger, Chapman, Daborne, Sylvester, Quarles, May, Daniel, Drayton, Wither, Shirley, Ford, Middleton, Heywood, Churchyard, Decker, Brome, Chaucer, Spenser, Basse, and finally, John Shank, the actor, who is said to have been famous for dancing a jig. It also contains poems on the Spanish Armada, Gunpowder Plot, Lady Carnarvon, Maid of Tottenham, Queen Elizabeth, King James I., &c. "This volume gave such great offence, that it was ordered by the Protector's Council to be burnt immediately after its publication."—Ant. à Wood. This will account for its excessive rarity. I have been able to trace the existence of only one other copy, which sold in Mr. Heber's sale for £6. 16s. 6d.

- 3054 KER'S (J. Bellenden) Essay on the Archæology of our Popular Phrases and Nursery Rhymes, 2 vols. 12mo. new cloth, 4s (pub. at 12s) 1837
- A work which has met with great abuse among the reviewers, but those who are fond of philological pursuits will read it now it is to be had at so very moderate a price, and it really contains a good deal of gossiping matter. The author's attempt is to explain everything from the Dutch, which he believes was the same language as the Anglo-Saxon.

 The cuts in a Spanish book entitled "Letana de la Virgen Santissima," translated from the Latin and printed at Valencia in 1768 are by the same engraver [Lucchesini.] Considerable fancy is displayed in the designs; and though the execution be paltry, yet the book, as Tom Hearne says, "is a curiosity," and possibly justified the Rev. Waldo Sibthorpe in his denunciation of what, since his re-conversion, he calls "MARIOLATRIA."—"Wood engraving; its History and Practice," in the Illustrated News.

- "All are equally remarkable for the simplicity and beauty of the style. It ordinarily flows in a clear and lucid stream, but readily drops to any tone, or rises to the height which the occasion may require. Franklin could not have epigrammatised more sententially her mottoes. The descriptions, whether of natural scenery, or of domestic incident, are pictures by Calcott or by Wilkie, turned into poetry by a sister genius."—Edinburgh Review.

- Cet important ouvrage, couronné par l'Institut de France, et qui a ouvert à M. Walekenaer, les portes de l'Académie des Inscriptions, peut être regardé comme ce qui a paru de plus remarquable sur la science géographique depuis les travaux de d'Anville et de Gosselin, qu'il complète dans plusieurs parties, surtout en ce qui concerne les Itinéraires anciens. L'auteur, qui a toujours suivi avec une studieuse constance, comme il le dit lui-même les grandes progrès qu'a faits de notre temps la Géographie, s'en montre aujourd'hui l'interprète le plus éclairé. Il critique la méthode suivie par les savants d'Allemagne et d'Angleterre pour la Géographie Ancienne, et fait voir qu'elle pourrait compromettre plus tard l'avancement de cette science.

- An interesting volume to those engaged in mechanical pursuits, it also contains some interesting literary history, Dr. Cartwright numbering among his correspondents, Sir W. Jones, Crabbe, Sir H. Davy, Fulton, Sir S. Raffles, Langhorne, and others, he was no mean poet as his legendary tale of "Armine and Elvira" (given in the appendix) testifies, Sir W. Scott says it contains some excellent poetry, expressed with unusual felicity. I have a vision of having met this accomplished gentleman in my early youth, and am the less likely to be mistaken, as he was the first living poet I recollect to have seen. His Poem had the distinguished honour to be much admired by our celebrated Philosopher Dugald Stewart, who was wont to quote, with much pathos, the picture of resignation, in the following stanza—
"And while his eye to heaven he raised,
Its silent waters stole away."
- Dr. Cartwright was father to the Rev. E. Cartwright, the Sussex Topographer, and Mrs. Penrose, well known under the name of "Mrs. Markham," his brothers were Capt. Cartwright, author of the Journal on the Coast of Labrador, 3 vols. 4to. and Major Cartwright, the Patriot.

Philology and Early English Literature.

A Dictionary of Archaic and Provincial Words, Obsolete Phrases,

Proverbs, and Ancient Customs, from the reign of Edward I. By JAMES ORCHARD HALLIWELL, F.R.S., F.S.A., &c. 2 vols. 8vo, containing upwards of 1000 pages, closely printed in double columns, cloth, 2l. 2s.

This work, which has occupied the Editor some years, is now completed; it contains above 50,000 words (embodying all the known scattered glossaries of the English language) forming a complete key for the reader of the works of our old Poets, Dramatists, Theologians, and other authors whose works abound with allusions, of which explanations are not to be found in ordinary Dictionaries and books of reference. Most of the principal Archaisms are illustrated by examples selected from early inedited MSS. and rare books, and by far the greater portion will be found to be original authorities.

"This promises to be a very useful work, and is evidently the result of extensive research, and of great labour judiciously applied. The want of a work of this description has long been felt, and several attempts have been made to supply the deficiency, but for some reason or other they have all hitherto failed. The Glossary of Archdeacon Nares is not only imperfect, but professedly restricted to a comparatively narrow scope, embracing terms used by the writers chiefly of the Elizabethan era; it is now, besides, a rare and costly book. Boucher's Glossary miscarried because it was begun in an inconvenient form, and on too expensive a scale. The work now before us, of which the first two parts alone have been published, appears to be much more complete than Boucher's, and has the advantage of being printed in a convenient form for reference, while its price is very moderate. It forms a most comprehensive Glossary to all our Old English writers, from the beginning of the fourteenth century to the time of the Stuarts, including the earlier Chroniclers, the writings of Wycliffe, and a long range of Poets, from Piers Ploughman, Chaucer, Gower, Lydgate, &c., to Spenser and his contemporaries, with Shakespeare and the Dramatists of that age. In addition to the obsolete portion of our language, this work may be said to be a complete Dictionary of the local dialects of the present day, and is one which will be an acceptable addition to every library."—Morning Herald.

"Mr. Halliwell is, we must acknowledge, as well qualified, by industry, ability, and previous study, to be the editor as any man living. We could indeed easily name a dozen persons, each of whom would be better qualified for particular departments, but not one who, including the whole range embraced by the title would have the ability and energy to go through all the drudging duties of the office more satisfactorily. It is a work, however, that, in the first instance, must be imperfect. We hold, therefore, that every English scholar should have an interleaved copy, that he may contribute a something towards improving a second edition. The first number appears to have been carefully compiled; but we are not inclined to seek very curiously for faults in a work of such obvious difficulty, when, even if it be imperfect, it cannot fail to be useful."—Athenæum.

Guide to the Anglo-Saxon Tongue: on the basis of Professor Rask's

Grammar, to which are added Reading Lessons in verse and prose, with Notes for the use of learners. By E. J. VERNON, B.A., Oxon. 12mo, cloth, 5s. 6d.

The student is furnished with a cheaper, easier, more comprehensive, and not less trustworthy guide to this tongue, than has hitherto been placed within his reach.

"The author of this Guide seems to have made one step in the right direction, by compiling what may be pronounced the best work on the subject hitherto published in England."—Athenæum.

"Mr. Vernon is a laboriously accurate Anglo-Saxon scholar, as is seen in his attention to the quantity of words; a branch of Anglo-Saxon grammar in which later scholars have done much by comparing the forms of roots as they are found in the different Teutonic dialects."—Gent.'s Mag. for Feb.

Reliquiæ Antiquæ. Scraps from Ancient Manuscripts, illustrating chiefly

Early English Literature, and the English Language, edited by WRIGHT and HALLIWELL, 2 vols. 8vo, cloth, 2l. 2s.—REDUCED to 1l. 4s.

Containing communications by Ellis, Madden, Hunter, Bruce, Turnbull, Laing, Nichols, &c. But very few copies remain. Odd numbers may be had to complete sets, at 2s. each.

It contains a large number of pieces in Anglo-Saxon, Anglo-Norman, and Early English; it will be found of use to future Philologists, and to all who take an interest in the history of our language and literature.

Popular Treatises on Science, written during the Middle Ages, in Anglo-

Saxon, Anglo-Norman, and English. 8vo. Edited by THOS. WRIGHT. Cloth, 4s. 6d.

Contents:—An Anglo-Saxon Treatise on Astronomy of the TENTH CENTURY, now first published from a MS. in the British Museum, with a translation; Livre des Creatures, by Philippe de Thau, now first printed with a translation, (extremely valuable to the Philologist, as being the earliest specimens of Anglo-Norman remaining, and explanatory of all the symbolical signs in early sculpture and painting); the Bestiary of Philippe de Thau, with a translation; Fragment on Popular Science from the Early English Metrical Lives of the Saints, (the earliest piece of the kind in the English language.)

An Introduction to Anglo-Saxon Reading; comprising Ælfric's Homily

on the Birthday of St. Gregory, with a copious Glossary, &c. By L. LANGLEY, F.L.S. 12mo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

Anecdota Literaria: A Collection of Short Poems in English, Latin, and French, illustrative of the Literature and History of England in the XIIIth Century; and more especially of the Condition and Manners of the different Classes of Society. By T. WRIGHT, M.A., F.S.A., &c. 8vo, cloth. Only 250 printed. 7s. 6d.

Philological Proofs of the original Unity and recent Origin of the Human Race, derived from a Comparison of the Languages of Asia, Europe, Africa, and America. By A. J. JOHNES. 8vo, cloth. REDUCED from 12s. 6d. to 6s.

Printed at the suggestion of Dr. Pritchard, to whose works it will be found a useful supplement.

Early Mysteries, and other Latin Poems of the XIIth and XIIIth centuries.

Edited from original MSS. in the British Museum, and the Libraries of Oxford, Cambridge, Paris, and Vienna. By THOS. WRIGHT, M.A., F.S.A. 8vo, bds, 4s. 6d.

"Besides the curious specimens of the dramatic style of Middle-Age Latinity, Mr. Wright has given two compositions in the Narrative Elegiac Verse (a favorite measure at that period), in the Comedia Babionis and the Geta of Vitalis Blesensis, which form a link of connexion between the Classical and Middle-age Literature; some remarkable Satirical Rhymes on the people of Norfolk, written by a Monk of Peterborough, and answered in the same style by John of St. Omer; and lastly, some sprightly and often graceful songs, from a MS. in the Arundel Collection, which afford a very favorable idea of the Lyric Poetry of our clerical forefathers."—Gentleman's Mag.

The Early History of Freemasonry in England, Illustrated by an English Poem of the XIVth Century, with Notes. By J. O. HALLIWELL. Post 8vo, SECOND EDITION, with a facsimile of the original MS. in the British Museum, cloth, 2s. 6d.

"The interest which the curious poem of which this publication is chiefly composed has excited, is proved by the fact of its having been translated into German, and of it having reached a second edition, which is not common with such publications. Mr. Halliwell has carefully revised the new edition, and increased its utility by the addition of a complete and correct glossary."—Literary Gazette.

Torrent of Portugal; an English

Metrical Romance, now first published, from an unique MS. of the XVth century, preserved in the Chetham Library at Manchester. Edited by J. O. HALLIWELL, &c. Post 8vo, cloth, uniform with Ritson, Weber, and Ellis's publications, 5s.

"This is a valuable and interesting addition to our list of early English metrical romances, and an indispensable companion to the collections of Ritson, Weber, and Ellis."—Literary Gazette.

"A literary curiosity, and one both welcome and serviceable to the lover of black-letter lore. Though the obsolescence of the style may occasion sad stumbling to a modern reader, yet the class to which it rightly belongs will value it accordingly; both because it is curious in its details, and possesses philological importance. To the general reader it presents one feature of interest, viz. the reference to Wayland Smith, whom Sir W. Scott has invested with so much interest."—Metropolitan Magazine.

An Essay on the Origin, Progress, and Decline of Rhyming Latin Verse, with many specimens. By Sir ALEX. CROKE. Post 8vo, cloth, 7s. 6d., reduced to 3s.

"This is a clever and interesting little volume on an attractive subject, the leisure work of a scholar and a man of taste."—British Critic.

On the Origin and Formation of the Romance Languages; containing an examination of M. Raynouard's Theory on the Relation of the Italian, Spanish, Provençal, and French, to the Latin. By GEO. CORNEWALL LEWIS. 8vo, cloth, 12s. REDUCED to 7s. 6d.

The Harrowing of Hell, a Miracle

Play, written in the Reign of Edward II., now first published from the Original in the British Museum, with a Modern Reading, Introduction, and Notes. By JAMES ORCHARD HALLIWELL, Esq., F.R.S., F.S.A., &c. 8vo, sewed, 2s.

This curious piece is supposed to be the earliest specimen of dramatic composition in the English language; vide Hallam's Literature of Europe, Vol. I.; Strutt's Manners and Customs, Vol. II.; Warton's English Poetry; Sharon Turner's England; Collier's History of English Dramatic Poetry, Vol. II. p. 213. All these writers refer to the Manuscript.

Nugæ Poeticæ; Select Pieces of Old

English Popular Poetry, illustrating the Manners and Arts of the XVth Century. Edited by J. O. HALLIWELL. Post 8vo. Only 100 copies printed, cloth, 5s.

Contents:—Colyn Blowbol's Testament; the Debate of the Carpenter's Tools; the Merchant and his Son; the Maid and the Magpie; Elegy on Lobe, Henry VIIIth's Fool; Romance of Robert of Sicily, and five other curious pieces of the same kind.

Rara Mathematica; or a Collection of Treatises on the Mathematics and Subjects connected with them, from ancient inedited MSS. By J. O. HALLIWELL. 8vo, Second Edition, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Contents: Johannis de Sacro-Bosco Tractatus de Arte Numerandi; Method used in England in the Fifteenth Century for taking the Altitude of a Steeple; Treatise on the Numeration of Algorithm; Treatise on Glasses for Optical Purposes, by W. Bourne; Johannis Robyns de Cometis Commentaria; Two Tables showing the time of High Water at London Bridge, and the Duration of Moonlight, from a MS. of the Thirteenth Century; on the Mensuration of Heights and Distances; Alexandri de Villa Dei Carmen de Algorithmo; Preface to a Calendar or Almanack for 1430; Johannis Norfolk in Artem progressionis summula; Notes on Early Almanacs, by the Editor, &c. &c.

Reliques of Irish Jacobite Poetry.

with Interlinear Translations, and Biographical Sketches of the Authors, and Notes by J. DALY, also English Metrical Versions by E. WALSH. 8vo. 1st parts I and 2 (all yet published,) 2s.

Popular Errors in English Grammar, particularly in Pronunciation, familiarly pointed out. By GEORGE JACKSON. 12mo, Third Edition, with a coloured frontispiece of the "Sedes Busbeiana." 6d.

Provincial Dialects of England.Bibliographical List of all the Works which have been published towards illustrating the Provincial Dialects of England. By JOHN RUSSELL SMITH. Post 8vo, 1s.

"Very serviceable to such as prosecute the study of our provincial dialects, or are collecting works on that curious subject. We very cordially recommend it to notice."—Metropolitan.

The Vocabulary of East Anglia, an attempt to record the vulgar tongue of the twin sister Counties, Norfolk and Suffolk, as it existed in the last twenty years of the Eighteenth Century, and still exists; with proof of its antiquity from Etymology and Authority. By the Rev. R. FORBY. 2 vols. post 8vo, cloth, 12s. (original price 1l. 1s.)

An Historical Sketch of the Provincial Dialects of England, illustrated by numerous examples. Extracted from the "Dictionary of Archaic and Provincial Words." By JAMES ORCHARD HALLIWELL. 8vo, sewed, 2s.

Westmorland and Cumberland

Dialects. Dialogues, Poems, Songs, and Ballads, by various Writers, in the Westmorland and Cumberland Dialects, now first collected, to which is added, a Copious Glossary of Words peculiar to those Counties. Post 8vo, pp. 408, cloth, 9s.

This collection comprises, in the Westmorland Dialect, Mrs. ANN WHEELER'S Four Familiar Dialogues, with Poems, &c.; and in the Cumberland Dialect, I. Poems and Pastorals by the Rev. JOSIAH RELPH; II. Pastorals, &c., by EWAN CLARK; III. Letter from Dublin by a young Borrowdale Shepherd, by ISAAC RITSON; IV. Poems by JOHN STAGG; V. Poems by MARK LONSDALE; VI. Ballads and Songs by ROBERT ANDERSON, the Cumbrian Bard (including some now first printed); VII. Songs by Miss BLAMIRE and Miss GILPIN; VIII. Songs by JOHN RAYSON; IX. An Extensive Glossary of Westmorland and Cumberland Words.

"Among the specimens of Cumberland Verse will be found some true poetry, if not the best ever written in the language of rural life this side the Scotch Borders. The writers seem to have caught in their happiest hours inspiration from the rapt soul of Burns. Anderson's touching song of wedded love, 'The Days that are gone,' is a worthy answer for a husband to Burns's 'John Anderson my Jo.'—Gent's Magazine.

"No other two counties in England have so many pieces, both in prose and verse, illustrative of the manners and customs of the inhabitants, and written in their own native dialect. The philologist will find numerous examples of words and phrases which are obsolete in the general language of England, or which have been peculiar to Westmorland and Cumberland from time immemorial. Nor are the pieces uninteresting in other respects. Some of the patois verses are rich in the true spirit and vigour of poetry."—Metropolitan.

"A charming volume: it contains some beautiful poetical effusions, as well as characteristic sketches in prose."—Archæologist.

The Yorkshire Dialect, exemplified in various Dialogues, Tales, and Songs, applicable to the County, with a Glossary. Post 8vo, 1s.

"A shilling book worth its money; most of the pieces of composition are not only harmless, but good and pretty. The eclogue on the death of 'Awd Daisy,' an outworn horse, is an outpouring of some of the best feelings of the rustic mind; and the addresses to riches and poverty have much of the freedom and spirit of Burns."—Gent's Magazine, May 1841.

Specimens of Cornish Provincial

Dialect, collected and arranged by Uncle Jan Treennoodle, with some Introductory Remarks and a Glossary by an Antiquarian Friend, also a Selection of Songs and other Pieces connected with Cornwall. Post 8vo, with curious portrait of Dolly Pentreath, cloth, 4s.

Exmoor Scolding and Courtship in the Propriety and Decency of Exmoor (Devonshire) Language, with Notes and a Glossary. Post 8vo, 12th edition, 1s. 6d.

"A very rich bit of West of Englandism."—

Grose's (Francis, F.S.A.) Glossary of Provincial and Local Words used in England, with which is now first incorporated the SUPPLEMENT by SAMUEL PEGGE, F.S.A. Post 8vo, elegantly printed, cloth, 4s. 6d.

The utility of a Provincial Glossary to all persons desirous of understanding our ancient poets is so universally acknowledged, that to enter into a proof of it would be entirely a work of supererogation. Grose and Pegge are constantly referred to in Todd's "Johnson's Dictionary."

Poems of Rural Life, in the Dorset Dialect, with a Dissertation and Glossary. By WILLIAM BARNES. SECOND EDITION in the press.

A fine poetic feeling is displayed through the various pieces in this volume; according to some critics nothing has appeared equal to it since the time of Burns; the Gent's Magazine for Dec. 1844, gave a review of the volume some pages in length.

A Glossary of Provincial Words and Phrases in use in Wiltshire, showing their Derivation in numerous instances from the Language of the Anglo-Saxons. By JOHN YONGE AKERMAN, Esq., F.S.A. 12mo, cloth, 3s.

A Collection of Fugitive Pieces in the Dialect of Zummerzet. Edited by J. O. HALLIWELL. Post 8vo, only 50 printed, 2s.

Dick and Sal, or Jack and Joan's Fair, a Doggerel Poem, in the Kentish Dialect. 3d edition, 12mo, 6d.

Jan Cladpole's Trip to 'Merri-cur in Search for Dollar Trees, and how he got rich enough to beg his way home! written in Sussex Doggerel. 12mo, 6d.

John Noakes and Mary Styles, a Poem, exhibiting some of the most striking lingual localisms peculiar to Essex, with a Glossary. By CHARLES CLARK, Esq. of Great Totham Hall, Essex. Post 8vo, cloth, 2s.

"The poem possesses considerable humour." Tait's Mag.—"A very pleasant trifle." Lit. Gaz.—"A very clever production." Essex Lit. Journal.—"Full of rich humour." Essex Mercury.—"Very droll." Metropolitan.—"Exhibits the dialect of Essex perfectly." Eclectic Review.—"Full of quaint wit and humour." Gent's Mag. May 1841.—"A very clever and amusing piece of local description." Archæologist.

Heraldry, Topography, Numismatics, and Archæology.

The Curiosities of Heraldry, with Illustrations from Old English Writers.

By MARK ANTONY LOWER, Author of "Essays on English Surnames;" with Illuminated Title-page, and numerous Engravings from designs by the Author. 8vo, cloth, GULES, appropriately ornamented, 18s.

This work is one of the principal authorities made use of by the compiler of Parker's recently published "Glossary of Heraldry," which is printed uniformly with it, and similarly illustrated. The two works should accompany each other. For the student of the "Noble Science," a treatise like Parker's is necessary for matters of detail, while one who wishes for a copious, continuous, and philosophical view of Heraldry, and its connexion with the history and manners of the middle ages, will be amply gratified by a perusal of the "Curiosities of Heraldry."

"The present volume is truly a worthy sequel (to the 'SURNAMEs') in the same curious and antiquarian line, blending with remarkable facts and intelligence, such a fund of amusing anecdote and illustration, that the reader is almost surprised to find that he has learnt so much, whilst he appeared to be pursuing mere entertainment. The text is so pleasing that we scarcely dream of its sterling value; and it seems as if, in unison with the woodcuts, which so cleverly explain its points and adorn its various topics, the whole design were intended for a relaxation from study, rather than an ample exposition of an extraordinary and universal custom, which produced the most important effect upon the minds and habits of mankind."—Literary Gazette.

"Mr. Lower's work is both curious and instructive, while the manner of its treatment is so inviting and popular, that the subject to which it refers, which many have hitherto had too good reason to consider meagre and unprofitable, assumes, under the hands of the writer, the novelty of fiction with the importance of historical truth."—Athenæum.

English Surnames. A Series of Essays on Family Nomenclature, Historical, Etymological, and Humorous; with Chapters on Canting Arms, Rebuses, the Roll of Battel Abbey, a List of Latinized Surnames, &c. By MARK ANTONY LOWER. The second edition, enlarged, post 8vo, pp. 292, with 20 woodcuts, cloth, 6s.

To those who are curious about their patronymic, it will be found a very instructive and amusing volume—mingling wit and pleasantry, with antiquarian research and historical interest.

"An instructive and amusing volume, which ought to be popular. Perhaps no subject is more curious than the history of proper names. How few persons are there who have not on one occasion or other been struck with the singular names which have fallen under their own observation, and who have not sought for information as to their origin? Yet we know of no work of any value, much more a popular work, which treats on the subject. Mr. Lower has written a very good and well-arranged book, which we can with confidence recommend to our readers."—Archæologist.

A Genealogical and Heraldic History of the Extinct and Dormant Baronetries of England, Ireland, and Scotland. By J. BURKE, Esq. and J. B. BURKE, Esq. Medium 8vo, SECOND EDITION. 638 closely printed pages, in double columns, with about 1000 arms engraved on wood, fine portrait of JAMES I, and illuminated title-page, extra cloth, 11. 8s. REDUCED TO 10s.

This work, which has engaged the attention of the Authors for several years, comprises nearly a thousand families, many of them amongst the most ancient and eminent in the kingdom, each carried down to its representative or representatives still existing, with elaborate and minute details of the alliances, achievements, and fortunes, generation after generation, from the earliest to the latest period. The work is printed to correspond precisely with 2d edition of Mr. Burke's Dictionary of the Existing Peerage and Baronetage; the armorial bearings are engraved best style, and are incorporated with the text as in that work.

Pedigrees of the Nobility and Gentry of Hertfordshire. By WILLIAM

BERRY, late and for fifteen years Registering Clerk in the College of Arms, Author of the "Encyclopædia Heraldica," &c. &c. Folio (only, 125 printed), bds. 3l. 10s. REDUCED to 1l. 6s.

"These Collections of Pedigrees will be found of great utility, though not of sufficient proof in themselves to establish the claims of kindred set forth in them; but affording a ready clue to such necessary proof whenever it should be required, by pointing out the places of nativity, baptism, marriages, and burials, and such other legal documents, as localities will otherwise afford, and the modern entries in the Herald's College, are of no better authority, requiring the very same kind of proof for legal purposes. This observation will perhaps silence the ill-natured remarks which have emanated from that quarter: and it is self-evident that the printing of 250 copies is a much safer record than one manuscript entry there, which might easily be destroyed."—Preface.

History and Antiquities of the Ancient Port and Town of Rye in Sussex, compiled from Original Documents. By WILLIAM HOLLOWAY, Esq. Thick 8vo, cloth, 1l. 1s.History and Antiquities of Dartford, in Kent, with Incidental Notices of Places in its Neighbourhood. By J. DUNKIN, Author of the "History of the Hundreds of Bullington and Ploughley in Oxfordshire;" "History of Bicester;" "History of Bromley," &c. 8vo, 17 plates, cloth. Only 180 printed. 21s.

Historic Sites and other Remarkable and Interesting Places in the County of Suffolk. By JOHN WODDERSPOON, with Prefatory Verses by BERNARD BARTON, Esq., and a Poetical Epilogue by a "SUFFOLK VILLAGER." Improved edition, fine woodcuts, post 8vo, pp. 232, closely printed, and containing as much matter as many 12s. volumes, cloth, ONLY 4s. 6d.

Principal Contents:—Framlingham Castle; Stanningfield; Rookwood; Mrs. Inchbald; Aldham Common; the Martyr's Stone; Westhorpe Hall, the residence of Charles Brandon, Duke of Suffolk; Ipswich; Wolsey's Gate and Mr. Sparrow's House; Rendlesham; Redgrave; Bury St. Edmunds, the Abbey; David Hartley; Bp. Gardiner; George Bloomfield; Wetheringset; Haughley Castle; Grimstone Hall; Cavendish, the Voyager; Framlingham Church, the burial-place of Surrey, the Poet; Bungay Castle; Dunwich; Aldborough; Wingfield, and the Old Halls of Suffolk.

The Local Historian's Table-Book of Remarkable Occurrences, Historical

Facts, Traditions, Legendary and Descriptive Ballads, &c. &c., connected with the Counties of NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, NORTHUMBERLAND, and DURHAM. By M. A. RICHARDSON. Royal 8vo, profusely illustrated with woodcuts, now Complete in 8 vols. royal 8vo, cloth, 9s. each, or the Divisions sold separately as follows:

HISTORICAL DIVISION, 5 vols. LEGENDARY DIVISION, 3 vols.

The legendary portion will be found very interesting volumes by those who take no interest in the Historical portion.

"This chronology of local occurrences, from the earliest times when a date is ascertainable possesses an especial interest for the residents of the Northern Counties; but, inasmuch as it records Historical events as well as trivial incidents, and includes Biographical notices of men whose fame extended beyond their birth-places, it is not without a value to the general reader. The work is divided into two portions, the larger consisting of the chronicle, and the lesser of the traditions and ballads of the country. Some of these are very characteristic and curious; they invest with poetic associations almost every ruin or plot of ground; and the earlier legends of moss-troopers and border-strifes afford an insight into the customs and state of society in remote periods. The handsome pages are illustrated with woodcuts of old buildings and other antiquities."—Spectator.

History of Banbury, in Oxfordshire, including Copious Historical and Antiquarian Notices of the Neighbourhood. By ALFRED BEESLEY. Thick 8vo, 684 closely printed pages, with 66 woodcuts, engraved in the first style of art, by O. Jewitt, of Oxford, (pub. at 1l. 6s.) NOW REDUCED to 14s.

"The neighbourhood of Banbury is equally rich in British, Roman, Saxon, Norman, and English Antiquities, of all which Mr. Beesley has given regularly cleared accounts. Banbury holds an important place in the history of the Parliamentary War of the Seventeenth Century, and was the scene of the great Battle of Edghill, and of the important fight of Cropredy Bridge. Relating to the events of that period, the author has collected a great body of local information of the most interesting kind. By no means the least valuable part of Mr. Beesley's work, is his account of the numerous interesting early churches, which characterize the Banbury district."—The Archaeologist.

J. R. SMITH having bought the whole stock of the above very interesting volume, invites the Subscribers to complete their copies in parts without delay, the price of which will be (for a short time) 1s. 6d., instead of 2s. 6d.

History and Topography of the Isle of Axholme, in Lincolnshire. By the Rev. W. B. STONEHOUSE. Thick 4to, FINE PLATES, REDUCED from 3l. 3s. to 15s.

The Druidical Temples of the County of Wilts. By the Rev. E. DUKE,

M.A., F.S.A., Member of the Archaeological Institute, &c., Author of the "Hall of John Halle," and other works, 12mo, plates, cloth, 5s.

"Mr. Duke has been long honourably known as a zealous cultivator of our local antiquities. His collections on this subject, and on the literature of Wiltshire, are nowhere surpassed; while his residence on the borders of the Plain, and within reach of our most interesting remains, has afforded scope to his meritorious exertions. The work before us is the fruit of long study and laborious investigation."—Salisbury Journal.

A Critical Dissertation on Professor Willis's "Architectural History of Canterbury Cathedral." By C. SANDYS, of Canterbury. 8vo, 2s. 6d.

"Written in no quarrelsome or captious spirit: the highest compliment is paid to Professor Willis, where it is due. But the author has certainly made out a clear case, in some very important instances, of inaccuracies that have led the learned Professor into the construction of serious errors throughout. It may be considered as an indispensable companion to his volume, containing a great deal of extra information of a very curious kind."—Art-Union.

The Visitor's Guide to Knole

House, near Seven Oaks in Kent, with Catalogue of the Pictures contained in the Mansion, a Genealogical History of the Sackville Family, &c. &c. By J. H. BRADY, F.R.A.S. 12mo, 27 woodcuts by Bonner, Sly, &c. cloth, 4s. 6d. Large Paper, 10s.

Account of what has been published on the History, Topography, Antiquities, Customs, and Family Genealogy of the County of Kent, with Biographical Notes. By JOHN RUSSELL SMITH. In a handsome 8vo volume, pp. 370, with two plates of fac-similes of Autographs of 33 eminent Kentish Writers. 14s. REDUCED TO 5s.—large paper, 10s. 6d.

A Journey to Beresford Hall, in Derbyshire, the Seat of CHARLES COTTON, Esq. the celebrated Author and Angler. By W. ALEXANDER, F.S.A., F.L.S., late Keeper of the Prints in the British Museum. Crown 4to, printed on tinted paper, with a spirited frontispiece, representing Walton and his adopted Son Cotton in the Fishing-house, and vignette title-page, cloth, 5s.

Dedicated to the Anglers of Great Britain and the various Walton and Cotton Clubs, only 100 printed.

Coins of the Romans relating to Britain, Described and Illustrated. By J. Y.

AKERMAN, F.S.A., Secretary to the Numismatic Society, &c. Second edition, greatly enlarged, 8vo, with plates and woodcuts, cloth, 10s. 6d.

The 'Prix de Numismatique' has just been awarded by the French Institute to the author for this work.

"Mr. Akerman's volume contains a notice of every known variety, with copious illustrations, and is published at very moderate price: it should be consulted, not merely for these particular coins, but also for facts most valuable to all who are interested in the Romano-British history."—Archæological Journal.

"The volume contains most of the papers entire that were read at the Meeting, and revised by the Authors. It will become a scarce book as only 120 were printed; and it forms the first yearly volume of the Archæological Association, or the Archæological Institute."

Popular Poetry, Stories, and Superstitions.

The Nursery Rhymes of England, collected chiefly from Oral Tradition.

Edited by J. O. HALLIWELL. The Fourth Edition, enlarged, with 38 Designs by W. B. SCOTT, Director of the School of Design, Newcastle-on-Tyne. 12mo, in very rich illuminated cloth, gilt leaves, 4s. 6d.

"Illustrations! And here they are; clever pictures, which the three-year olds understand before their A, B, C, and which the fifty-three year olds like almost as well as the threes."—Literary Gazette.

"We are persuaded that the very rudest of these jingles, tales, and rhymes, possess a strong imagination-nourishing power; and that in infancy and early childhood a sprinkling of ancient nursery lore is worth whole cartloads of the wise saws and modern instances which are now as duly and carefully concocted by experienced litterateurs, into instructive tales for the spelling public, as are works of entertainment for the reading public. The work is worthy of the attention of the popular antiquary."—Tait's Mag.

The public are cautioned against other works with imitative titles, which have been published since the second edition of the above, and which are mostly pirated from it. Mr. Halliwell's is the largest collection of these odd ditties ever formed, with explanatory notes, &c. &c.

An Essay on the Archæology of our Popular Phrases and Nursery Rhymes. By

H. B. KER. 2 vols. 12mo, new cloth, 4s. (pub. at 12s.)

A work which has met with great abuse among the reviewers, but those who are fond of philological pursuits will read it now it is to be had at so very moderate a price, and it really contains a good deal of gossiping matter. The author's attempt is to explain everything from the Dutch, which he believes was the same language as the Anglo-Saxon.

The Merry Tales of the Wise Men of Gotham. Edited by JAMES

ORCHARD HALLIWELL, Esq. F.S.A. Post 8vo, 1s.

These tales are supposed to have been composed in the early part of the sixteenth century, by Dr. Andrew Borde, the well-known progenitor of Merry Andrews. "In the time of Henry the Eighth, and after," says Ant.-à-Wood, "it was accounted a book full of wit and mirth by scholars and gentlemen."

The Noble and Renowned History of Guy, Earl of Warwick, containing a full and true account of his many famous and valiant actions. 12mo, new edition, with woodcuts, cloth, 2s. 6d.

Saint Patrick's Purgatory; an Essay on the Legends of Purgatory, Hell, and Paradise, current during the Middle Ages. By THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A., F.S.A., &c. Post 8vo, cloth, 6s.

"It must be observed, that this is not a mere account of St. Patrick's Purgatory, but a complete history of the legends and superstitions relating to the subject, from the earliest times, rescued from old MSS. as well as from old printed books. Moreover, it embraces a singular chapter of literary history, omitted by Warton and all former writers with whom we are acquainted; and we think we may add, that it forms the best introduction to Dante that has yet been published."—Literary Gazette.

"This appears to be a curious and even amusing book on the singular subject of Purgatory, in which the idle and fearful dreams of superstition are shown to be first narrated as tales, and then applied as means of deducing the moral character of the age in which they prevailed."—Spectator.

Trial of the Witches at Bury St. Edmunds, before Sir M. HALE, 1664, with an Appendix by CHARLES CLARK, Esq. of Totham, Essex. 8vo, 1s.

"The most perfect narrative of anything of this nature hitherto extant."—Preface.

Wonderful Discovery of the Witchcrafts of Margaret and Philip Flower, daughters of Joan Flower, near Bever (Belvoir), executed at Lincoln for confessing themselves actors in the destruction of Lord Rosse, son of the Earl of Rutland. 1618. 8vo, 1s.

One of the most extraordinary cases of Witchcraft on record.

Account of the Trial, Confession, and Condemnation of Six Witches at MAIDSTONE, 1682; also the Trial and Execution of Three others at Faversham, 1648. 8vo, 1s.

These transactions are unnoticed by all the Kentish historians.

NUMISMATIC AND ARCHÆOLOGICAL WORKS
BY MR. AKERMAN.

I.
AN ARCHÆOLOGICAL INDEX

TO REMAINS OF ANTIQUITY OF THE CELTIC, ROMANO-BRITISH AND ANGLO-SAXON PERIODS.

One Volume, octavo, price 15s. cloth, illustrated by numerous engravings, comprising upwards of five hundred objects.

BY JOHN YONGE AKERMAN, F.S.A.

This work, though intended as an introduction and a guide to the study of our early antiquities, will it is hoped also prove of service, as a book of reference to the practised Archæologist. The contents are as follows :

PART I. CELTIC PERIOD.—Tumuli, or Barrows and Cairns.—Cromlechs.—Sepulchral Caves.—Rocking Stones.—Stone Circles, etc. etc.—Objects discovered in Celtic Sepulchres.—Urns.—Beads.—Weapons.—Implements, etc.

PART II. ROMANO-BRITISH PERIOD.—Tumuli of the Roman-British Period.—Burial Places of the Romans.—Pavements.—Camps.—Villas.—Sepulchral Monuments.—Sepulchral Inscriptions.—Dedicatory Inscriptions.—Commemorative Inscriptions.—Altars.—Urns.—Glass Vessels.—Fibulæ.—Armillæ.—Coins.—Coin-Moulds, etc. etc.

PART III. ANGLO-SAXON PERIOD.—Tumuli.—Detailed List of Objects discovered Anglo-Saxon Barrows.—Urns.—Swords.—Spears.—Knives.—Umbones of Shields.—Buckles.—Fibulæ.—Bullæ.—Hair Pins.—Beads, etc. etc. etc. etc.

The ITINERARY of ANTONINUS (as far as relates to Britain). The Geographical Tables of PTOLEMY, the NOTITIA, and the ITINERARY of RICHARD of CIRENCESTER, together with a classified Index of the contents of the ARCHÆOLOGIA (Vols. i. to xxxi.) are given in an Appendix.

“No one can doubt the author's qualifications: Mr. Akerman's chief reputation is as a numismatist, but in the work before us he has shewn that his Archæological acquirements have a much wider range.”—Athenæum.

“One of the first wants of an incipient Antiquary is the facility of comparison, and here it is furnished him at one glance. The plates, indeed, form the most valuable part of the book, both by their number and the judicious selection of types and examples which they contain. It is a book which we can, on this account, safely and warmly recommend to all who are interested in the antiquities of their native land.”—Literary Gazette.

“A book of such utility—so concise, so clear, so well condensed from such varied and voluminous sources—cannot fail to be generally acceptable.”—Art Union.

“A useful book to the student of Archæology, and not without interest to the tourist with a taste for antiquities. The text is fully illustrated by plates, which present to the eye the objects numbered and sought to be described by the pen.”—Spectator.

“As an introduction and guide to the study of our early antiquities we consider this ‘Index’ invaluable.”—Norfolk Chronicle.

“A valuable aid to the Study of Archæology.”—Britannia.

“This richly illustrated volume will be a standard work of reference for young Antiquaries. The author has chosen to call it an ‘Archæological Index,’ but it will be more favourably made known as at once a concise yet comprehensive introduction to early British Archæology.”—Atlas.

II.

A NUMISMATIC MANUAL. 1 vol. 8vo., price One Guinea.

. The Plates which illustrate this Volume are upon a novel plan, and will, at a glance, convey more information regarding the types of Greek, Roman, and English Coins, than can be obtained by many hours' careful reading. Instead of a fac simile Engraving being given of that which is already an enigma to the tyro, the most striking and characteristic features of the Coin are dissected and placed by themselves, so that the eye soon becomes familiar with them.

"We have long looked for a work on Numismatics which might give so much information as every well-educated man ought to possess, be free from vulgar errors, and at the same time be within the reach of the general reader. Just such a work has Mr. Akerman given us."—Church of England Quarterly Review, Oct. 1840.

III.

A DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE OF RARE AND UNEDITED ROMAN COINS, from the earliest period to the taking of Rome under Constantine Paleologos. 2 vols. 8vo. Numerous Plates, 30s.

IV.

C COINS OF THE ROMANS RELATING TO BRITAIN. 1 vol. 8vo., Second Edition, with an entirely new set of plates, price 10s. 6d.

"L'ouvrage le plus considérable de ceux qui ont été admis au concours est, sans contredit, le volume où M. Akerman a recueilli toutes les médailles romaines relatives à la Grande Bretagne. Si cet ouvrage ne se recommande pas par un grand nombre de types nouveaux, il offre tout l'intérêt qui s'attache ordinairement à la réunion complète d'une classe de monuments relatifs à un même pays, à une période entière de son histoire, quand ces monuments sont décrits avec soin et classés avec méthode. Votre commission a reconnu ces divers genres de mérite dans l'ouvrage de M. Akerman, et elle doit particulièrement des éloges aux aperçus historiques dont l'auteur a enrichi l'exposition claire et élégante, placée en tête de son livre. Votre commission, Messieurs, vous propose donc de décerner le prix fondé par M. Allier d'Hauteroche à l'archéologue zélé qui, depuis dix années, publie le Journal Numismatique de Londres, auquel l'Angleterre doit un bon Manuel de Numismatique, et qui vient entreprendre la publication d'un Recueil de toutes les Médailles des peuples, villes et rois de l'antiquité."—Address of the Commission appointed to Report to the "Institut de France" on the works sent in by Candidates for the Numismatic Prize. Sess. 1845.

Obsolete Phrases, Proverbs, and Ancient Customs,
FROM THE REIGN OF EDWARD I.

BY J. O. HALLIWELL, ESQ., F.R.S., F.S.A.

This work, which has occupied the Editor some years, is now completed; it contains above 50,000 words (embodying all the known scattered glossaries of the English language), forming a complete key for the reader of the works of our old Poets, Dramatists, Theologians, and other authors whose works abound with allusions, of which explanations are not to be found in ordinary Dictionaries and books of reference. Most of the principal Archaisms are illustrated by examples selected from early inedited MSS. and rare books, and by far the greater portion will be found to be original authorities.

THE OAK.

The oak has ever been distinguished as the glory of the forest, both for its importance and its longevity. The earliest mention that is made of this tree is in Holy Writ ; that ancient of days, the "Oak of Mamre," under which Abraham sat in the heat of the day, and which, we are told, remained an object of veneration even in the time of Constantine. The oak was held sacred by the Greeks, the Romans, the Gauls, and the Britons. Among the Romans it was dedicated to Jupiter ; among the ancient Britons, its consecrated shade was devoted to the most sacred ceremonies of the Druids, and scarcely is it held in less veneration by their descendants, who see in every acorn that drops from its branching arms—

Those sapling oaks, that at Britannia's call
May heave their trunks mature upon the main,
And float the bulwarks of her liberty.

CETACEOUS* ANIMALS.

THE WHALE TRIBE.

These animals are all inhabitants of the sea ; and although they bear some resemblance to fish in external appearance, are much more like quadrupeds in internal structure. They breathe air through lungs, and suckle their young at their breasts. These stupendous marine animals are found from fifty feet, to upwards of one hundred in length.

The general form of the Whale tribe is similar to that of fishes, in the horizontal elongation of the body, the rounded and smooth surface, the gradual attenuation of the extremities of the trunk, and the development of fins, and especially of the tail as means of progression. The whole of the fin of this singular animal consists of exactly the same elements as those which compose the arm and hand of man ; but so concealed underneath the thick skin which envelopes it, that not a trace of these bones is to be seen externally. In the Whales, the large fin, the tail, a most important organ of progression, consists of an extremely broad and powerful horizontal disk, varying in figure in the different species, but in all constituting the principal instrument of locomotion. This extraordinary organ is not placed vertically as in fishes, but horizontally ; and the admirable adaptation of such a peculiarity in its position to the requirements of the animal, forms a beautiful illustration of the perfection of Creative Wisdom.

Not only are the young of the Whale brought forth alive, but the mother exhibits towards them the utmost affection and solicitude ; in many species holding them under her fins, and protecting them with the greatest care and courage ;—such is invariably the love of mothers !

In the Whale tribe are included the dolphin, the porpoise, the grampus, the nar-whale or sea unicorn, &c. Some of them are animal-eaters, others are feeders on sea weeds.

The Whale is mentioned in Genesis, in the sublime book of Job, in the first chapter of Jonah, in the prophecy of Ezekiel, in St. Matthew's Gospel, &c. ; but it is doubtful whether the marine animal mentioned in Holy Writ, is the one now called the Whale.

REET, KENT,

THE REPORT OF THE
RST GENERAL

INSECTS.

When an insect first issues from the egg it is called by naturalists larva, which means a caterpillar, a grub, or a maggot. The distinction seems to be, that caterpillars are produced from the eggs of butterflies and moths; grubs, from the eggs of beetles, bees, wasps, &c.; and maggots, which are without feet, from blue-bottles, house-flies, cheese-flies, &c. Maggots are sometimes called worms, as in the case of the meal-worm; but the common earth-worm is not a larva, nor is it ranked by modern naturalists among insects. The larvæ of insects are remarkably small at first, but grow rapidly. The full grown caterpillar of the goat-moth is seventy-two thousand times heavier than when it issues from the egg, and the maggot of the blow-fly or blue-bottle, is, in twenty-four hours, one hundred and fifty times heavier than at its birth.

THE TEA TREE.

Tea is a species of Camellia growing wild in China and Japan, celebrated for its leaf, immense quantities being annually exported into other countries, with which the North Americans and Europeans, particularly the English, compose an agreeable beverage by infusion. This nation alone consumes more than all the rest of Europe: they attach so much importance to its use, that the first mark of politeness they shew to strangers is an invitation to drink tea with them.

A MOTHER'S LOVE.

Isaiah lxvi. 13.

There is not a grand inspiring thought,
There is not a truth by wisdom taught;
There is not a feeling pure and high,
That may not be read in a mother's eye.

And ever since earth began, that look
Has been to the wise an open book;
To win them back from the love they prize,
To the holier love that edifies.

There are teachings on earth, in sky, in air,
The heavens the glory of God declare:
But more loud than the voice beneath, above,
He is heard to speak through a mother's love.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

THE MORNING ADVERTISER.

"This new and improved edition of a really useful book shows how much may be done in labours to teach useful ideas, to forward the great object of human improvement, even at the very threshold of instruction."

THE CRITIC.

"The Spelling Book before us we unhesitatingly pronounce, the best we have yet seen, and it is because we wish well to whatever is conducive to the grand purpose which education subserves, that we recommend the Spelling Book of Utility."

THE SUNDAY TIMES.

"The lessons are arranged in the best possible order, and the book contains nothing that is not calculated to afford some useful instruction to the young beginner. On the whole, Chambers' Spelling Book appears to us to be the best work of the kind which has been yet published. When it becomes better known, we have no doubt that in schools it will be generally adopted."

THE LONDON AND LIVERPOOL ADVERTISER.

"In this admirable compilation, every thing in any way irksome to the child has been avoided, and the lessons are arranged in an easy, familiar, and entertaining series, containing much useful information, introduced in a pleasing delightful form."

RAILWAY AND COMMERCIAL GAZETTE.

"We have great pleasure in noticing a new edition of this juvenile instructor. The lessons are arranged in a familiar, easy, and progressive series, and all contain useful information, calculated to make children think. Kindness towards others, and the fulfilment of the laws, are inculcated—and the whole is fully adapted to lead to a love of reading, and a longing for higher instruction."

THE HISTORY OF THE BRITISH, ROMAN AND ROMANO-BRITISH TOWNS ON THE BANKS OF THE RIVER EBBSFLEET, NOW CALLED

SPRINGHEAD,

IN THE PARISHES OF NORTHFLEET AND SOUTHFLEET, KENT,

By Alfred John Dunkin, Esq.,

MIL. COL. VIND.

AUTHOR OF LEGENDE CANTIANÆ;—CHRONICLES OF KENT;—ETC.;—AND EDITOR OF THE REPORT OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE BRITISH ARCHAEOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION AT THE FIRST GENERAL CONGRESS HELD AT CANTERBURY, IN 1844, &c. &c. &c.

THE work will contain the History of the FIRST BRITISH SETTLEMENT on the Banks of the Thames sixteen centuries before the Christian era, and an elaborate account of the primeval inhabitants of this county—their persons and women—their habits, manners and customs—their subterraneous residences, of which “Caerberlarber’s Hole” in Southfleet parish, is a capital specimen—their navigation and commerce—their religion, and its gradual corruption after being carried away from the plains of Shinar—their tumuli—their existing remains, &c. &c. Visit of the Phœnicians three centuries later, who after planting colonies upon the banks of the Thames, continued to maintain commercial intercourse with the highly civilized merchants, manufacturers, miners, and agriculturists of Kent. Tarshish, demonstrated to be Britain, by the evidence of both inspired and profane writers. The fleets of Tarshish wintering in the estuary formed by the river Ebbsfleet.—Visit of Hanno the Carthaginian.—Kent colonizes Gaul. Invasion of the Belgæ about 300 years before the expeditions of Cæsar—the Belgæ shown to be descendants of the primeval inhabitants of Britain—the pedigree—their fleets constructed in the Ebbsfleet, the timber supplied by Swanscombe, or Stone-park forests—the Druid school and Sacred grove, in Southfleet parish—religion—costume—laws and government. First invasion of Cæsar shown to have been utterly futile, from his own statements—the port where he landed—his defeat and flight. Second invasion—attempt to reconcile Cæsar’s statements with the face of the country—the first attempt to describe Cæsar’s line of march—passage of the ford of the Medway—defeat of Caswallon—Thong, discovery of the camp, with the traces of the great battle fought by Cæsar with Caswallon, in the heaps of bones, Roman and British weapons, and Roman armour—the spot where the submission of the Trinobantes was received—the state of the Trinobantes, the Hundred of Hoo—the storming and seizure of Caswallon’s city, in the woods near Dartford, the furthestmost point to which Cæsar penetrated in Britain—remains of this period in the neighbourhood. Conquest of Kent by Aulus Plautius—line of march of the Roman General fully described for the first time—Founding of the Roman city at Springhead—visit of the Roman Emperor—establishment of Baths, and erection of Temples to Esculapius, and Apollo or the Sun—introduction of the Christian religion; Mission of the aged Apostle Paul, and his journey through Kent; consequent decadence of the Druid school in Stone wood—Agricola and his policy—under which the Roman town at Spring-head is greatly enlarged, and gorgeously-decorated villas are erected—the Watling street re-formed—the British ship building yard converted into Navalia—Potteries and manufactories erected, &c. &c. Character, amusements and diversions of the British inhabitants—their manner of life, residences, navigation, commerce and worship. Reign of Carausius, the first British Admiral—defeats the whole naval power of Rome—triumphantly rules the seas—fits out his fleet at Springhead, where his coins have been found in great numbers—his murder—re-conquest of Britain by the Romans. Destruction by fire of the town and the villas on the banks of the Ebbsfleet, by the piratical Saxons. Sweyn and the Danes, who winter in the estuary of the Ebbs, and furnish the etymology for the adjoining parish of Swanscombe—description of its church, &c. &c., with copious explanatory notes descriptive of the

OF THE

British Archaeological Association,

AT THE

FIRST GENERAL CONGRESS, HELD AT CANTERBURY,

In September, 1844,

EDITED BY ALFRED JOHN DUNKIN, ESQ.,

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATION,

WITH NUMEROUS ILLUSTRATIONS.

One hundred and fifty copies in 8vo. and twenty in 4to., (for illustrating,) were only printed of the above volume; three copies of the 8vo. edition, and two of the 4to., are all that now remain unsold—and as the plates have all been destroyed, it is utterly impossible for the Report ever to be reprinted.

A REPORT

THE SUBSTANCE OF THE SEVERAL SPEECHES

AT THE

SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING,

OF THE

British Archaeological Association,

HELD AT

THE WESTERN LITERARY INSTITUTION,

LEICESTER SQUARE,

ON WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 5TH, 1845,

THOMAS JOSEPH PETTIGREW, Esq., F.R.S., F.S.A., IN THE CHAIR.

APPENDED TO WHICH, ARE SOME

OBSERVATIONS UPON THE PROCEEDINGS.

 Be particular in specifying Mr. DUNKIN's edition of this pamphlet.

In the Press and will be Published in 1 vol. 8vo. on the 1st of January.

THE LATIN TEXT of the account of the Burning and Repairing of Canterbury Cathedral, by the Monk Gervase, an eye witness. Appended will be a Re-print of the TRANSLATION, by Edward Cressy, Jun. esq., from the Report of the Proceedings of the British Archaeological Association, at the First General Meeting held at Canterbury, in September, 1844. The volume will contain the whole of the MONUMENTAL INSCRIPTIONS in the Sacred Fane. Edited by Alfred John Dunkin, esq., Member of the Association.

Several modern Publications have professed to give copies of the Inscriptions, which the Editor upon attempting to verify, found so exceedingly imperfect, that it was easier to re-transcribe the whole than correct, which he has therefore accordingly done for this work.

 Only one hundred copies of the above are being printed. Gentlemen anxious to possess the volume, are therefore requested to forward their names to A. J. Dunkin, at Dartford; as two thirds of the copies are already subscribed for. The Work will be delivered in 1847.

Richardson's Metallic . Rubber . for Monumental . Brasses.

This Composition was originally prepared with a view only to form a private Collection, but many parties, to whom the rubbings thus taken were shown, having expressed a wish to obtain the Composition and Prepared Paper, they are both now offered to the notice of Collectors of those interesting Memorials of the Dead—the Monumental Brasses of our Country Churches.

The advantage of the present plan consists in its producing an exact fac-simile of the Brass; the modes hitherto adopted exhibiting the engraved lines in reverse—namely, white instead of black.

The mode of manipulation is precisely the same as that practised with heel-ball, consequently the labour is not increased; and when the surplus paper is cut off according to the outline of the Brass, and the figure or inscription mounted on stone-coloured paper or cardboard, so perfect a fac-simile of the original is obtained, as well to repay that extra trouble.

It is only necessary to observe, that in taking the Rubbing the Prepared Paper is to be placed with the dark side uppermost: and in order to obtain an uniform appearance, it is better to finish the rubbing in one direction—that straight across the figure being better than perpendicularly.

The price of the Composition is 1s. 6d. the cake, and of the Prepared Paper 3s. 6d. the quire.

PREPARED ONLY BY

H. S. RICHARDSON, STOCKWELL STREET, GREENWICH.

Sold also by the following Booksellers, &c., where Specimens may be seen:—G. BELL, 168, Fleet Street, and J. H. HOOD, 25, Red Lion Square, Holborn, London; J. H. PARKER, Oxford; J. and J. J. FROM THE GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE FOR SEPT. 1844.

"We are indebted to Mr. H. S. RICHARDSON, of Greenwich, for two very beautiful impressions of Ancient Sepulchral Brasses, taken with a Composition and Prepared Paper which are offered for sale to the Artist and Antiquary. We are not able to describe the materials, which we have not seen in their original state; but we can state of the impressions, that they are by far the most perfect we have ever seen. * * * The Metallic Rubber gives the whole the appearance of the brass itself, except where the latter is engraved, or where its surface is impaired by rust—for the rubbings before us are no less exact than that; so complete is the duplicate of the brass thus obtained upon paper, both in general colour as well as in the engraved lines. The operation is stated to be as simple as with heelball, and the rubbings appear fixed, and not liable to be smeared."

CRITICISM.

Want of time and opportunity has hitherto prevented our making allusion to these beautiful specimens of typography, enshrining within an elegant and tasteful exterior a series of valuable historical tracts, it must be admitted of chiefly local interest, but nevertheless many of the subjects, from their nature and the respectable manner in which they are edited, possess a claim on the attentive perusal of the antiquary and man of taste, wherever he may reside. Many of them contribute not a little to illustrate the manners, customs, and antiquities of other districts than those to which they more particularly refer, and reflect great honour on the gentlemen by whom they are produced, and on the town wherein they reside.

Those which have more particularly attracted our attention, are,—A Metrical Chronicle of the family of Percy,—Scholæ Novocastrænsis Alumni,—The Obsequies of certain of the Family of Blackett, of Newcastle,—A Relation of a Visit to the North of England, by three Norwich soldiers in 1643,—The Injunctions of Barnes, bishop of Durham, to his Clergy and Churchwardens in 1577,—A Biography of William and Elizabeth Elstob, the eminent Saxonists,—and, The State of the English Borders in the days of Henry the Eighth.

We observe too, by the catalogue, that the publisher has in a state of preparation, as a continuation of the series, the following tempting subjects :—Memorials of the Plague in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, from the days of Henry the Eighth,—The Sojournings and Captivity of Charles the First in Newcastle,—Passages from the Letter-book of William Scott, the father of the lords Stowell and Eldon,—A Booke of the Losses in the Middle Marches of England, by the Scotts thefes, presented at Alnwick, 1586,—Certaine verie rare observations of Cumberland, Northumberland, etc., by Sampson Erdeswicke, in 1572,—A Muster of the Fencible Inhabitants of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, taken 30 Hen. VIII.,—and, Extracts from the Accounts and other Records of the Corporation of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

As the impression is limited to one hundred copies, we may presume that there cannot be many remaining unsold.

Extracted from the original in the Rolls Chapel, and illustrated with notes.

The Conservatorship of the Tyne: compiled from an inedited MS. detailing the defence made by the magistrates of Newcastle against the allegations of Ralph Gardiner as set forth in his 'England's Grievance Discovered,' by which the one-sided statements of that author are in almost every case refuted.

The Colvilles of Newcastle and Whitehouse; a memorial of the family of Edward Colville, an opulent butcher and hostman, of Newcastle, whose daughter Camilla became Countess of Tankerville, another, the wife of Lyonell Allan, a merchant of Rotterdam, a third, the wife of Charles Clarke, esq. attorney at law, and another the wife of Roger Pearson of Tritlington, co. Northd. esquire.

Selections from the accounts and other records of the Corporation of Newcastle upon Tyne, extracted by the late alderman Hornby, in his MS. history of that town.

Northumbrian Men and Manners in days gone by: extracts from the proceedings of Justices of the Peace for the county of Northumberland from the time of Charles II.—a sequel to the tracts relating to Border outrage and legislation.

The Cays of Newcastle, North Charlton, and Edinburgh: a narrative genealogy of the posterity of Thomas Key a baker and brewer of Newcastle in the days of Elizabeth and James. Among the numerous members of this important family will be found Jabez Cay an eminent physician of Newcastle; John Cay of South Shields, his brother, who first gave the family territorial rank; the present John Cay, esq. of Edinburgh F. R. S. E., sheriff of Linlithgow, and member of the general Prison Board of Scotland; John Cay, judge of the Marshalsea, and author of the Statutes at Large; Robert Hodgson Cay, one of the Judges of the Supreme Consistorial Court of Scotland, Judge Admiral of Scotland and L. L. D. of Edinburgh; and last not least, Robert Cay, the originator of the Newcastle Infirmary.

CHARLES S. MIDDLETON.

THE little Volume of Poems, which the Author intends Publishing under the above title, will contain the result of Spare Half-hours, which he has been enabled to devote to his favorite pursuit, prior to the age of twenty one. He is fully aware of the difficulties he will have to contend with, in such an undertaking, since he has not to enter upon a field already formed, but has rather to form one for himself. But as nothing is done without a struggle, he is determined to enter upon the speculation with a light heart, in the strong hope of meeting with encouragement from his friends and the lovers of Poetry, and at the same time to hold himself prepared for whatever disappointment may fall to his lot.

Some of his productions have appeared from time to time in the periodicals, but as his name and writings will be unknown to many, he begs leave to offer the Sonnet below, as a specimen of what the whole shall be, and to state that Subscribers' names will be gratefully received at the undermentioned office.

TO MERCY.

Sweet Angel of the World! Thy radiant wings,
Spread like a glory glowing with pure light,
Thy holy smile eternal gladness brings,
Where all seem'd wrapt in darkness and in night.

Thou liftest up the Captive in his cell,—
Thou pourest balm upon the Tyrant's breast,
And black Revenge flies homeward to its hell,
Where'er the shadow of thy wings may rest.

Thou weepest o'er the judgment seat of God,
Till bleeding justice half forgoes the doom,
Thou stayest with thy hand his chastening rod,
When tears of penitence the soul consume,
Thou art indeed an Angel from above,
The holiest offspring of eternal love.
